The environmentally themed productions, beginning Sunday, sponsored by GIVE.

CORONA, Calif. – The depletion of the rain forests, alternative fuels and sustainability are topics of environmentally themed theater productions being staged at Dos Lagos by CAT, the Christian Arts & Theatre of Corona, and the Green Institute for Village Empowerment.

The original musical performances, put on by area children from ages 6-18, are free and open to the public. All performances will take place at the amphitheater at the lakes at Dos Lagos, exit Dos Lagos Drive off Interstate 15.

Performances begin on Sunday.

“This Just In: Paradise Found” – at 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 7 and 21

“Foolish Fuelers’ Day Out” – at 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 11 and 18

“Meet the Greens” – In January (times and dates to be announced)

“Paradise Found,” performed two days in September, tells the story of Southern California kids visiting a news station in the Amazon Rain Forest, where they learn about the dangers facing this natural wonder and relay it to the audience through song and dance.

“Foolish Fuelers’ Day Out,” performed two days in October, focuses on alternative fuels and renewable energy and highlights the many steps individuals can take to reduce their carbon footprint.

“Meet the Greens,” to be performed in January, demonstrates ways that local families can be sustainable by taking a few simple measures at home.
