EARTHQUAKES: DON'T BE SCARED. BE PREPARED.

GIVE to host April 9 community program designed specifically for kids.

CORONA, Calif. – Do your children know what to do when an earthquake strikes? The Green Institute for Village Empowerment (GIVE) is hosting an Earthquake Preparedness presentation to help.

What: Earthquake Preparedness for Kids

When: 6:30 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 9

Where: Krikorian Theatres 15 at Dos Lagos, in Corona

Who: Lynn Mata, city of Corona emergency services coordinator, to speak.

Lynn Mata, the city of Corona's emergency services coordinator, will provide information on being prepared, making emergency supply kits, and what to do immediately following an emergency. Her presentation is designed to take the fear out of earthquakes, and to empower families to take control and be prepared.

Free kids meals at TGI Friday's at Dos Lagos will be awarded to the first 50 children to show up at the event. The event is free, but reservations are required by e-mailing: denise@secorporation.com

The presentation is part of a monthly informational series sponsored by GIVE, the city of Corona and The Promenade Shops at Dos Lagos.

GIVE is a nonprofit organization established in 2005 to promote balance in the way people live, how their choices impact the environment and others in their community. GIVE hosts events and initiatives, and sponsors college campus chapters to educate the public on issues related to sustainability, a term used to describe this social, economic and environmental balance.
